

The 2014 European Irrigation Awards: Sponsor excellence in Irrigation!

We invite you to become a sponsor at this industry leading event

The mission of the EIA (European Irrigation Association), a non-profit European organization, is to improve the products, practices and services used to manage water resources and to contribute to the global improvement of the environment.

Those who excel at achieving this mission may be nomination to achieve the 2014 European Irrigation Award.

At this occasion, the EIA is organizing a European Award dinner on 13 November 2014, at Hotel Bologna Airport, to recognize and promote the irrigation industry's most innovative products or services for environmental sustainability. A limited amount of sponsorship opportunities are available to increase your visibility at this glamorous event.
